C. DOYLE AND SELDEN DEFEAT MOORE AND MORGAN IN TENNIS

Hard Battle in the Annual Invitation Tourney of the Columbia Country Club, Notwithstanding the Rain.

The annual fall invitation tennis tournament of the Columbia Country notwithstanding the downpour of rain Saturday night and Monday morning. Chairman Leech and the others of the tennis committee were early at the throughout the morning, the tourna noon. At one time it was thought all account of the soft ground, but a nice breeze from the west and a little sunshine helped materially to straighten things out. The callery was guitalars shine helped materially to straighten things out. The gallery was quite large throughout the day, and numerous exciting matches that developed were watched with unusual interest.

The feature battle of the day turned up in the doubles, when Moore and Morgan met C. Doyle and Selden, the latter pair winning, 8—6 and 6—4. The local champion has had but little practice with Selden, and it was thought that the Chevy Chase pair would surely win from the play at the start-off, but the youngster quickly found himself and worked splendidly. Of course, Doyle was a tower of strength in serving, but he frequently backed out of plays to give his young partner a chance to show. Toward the end of the contest Selden was going so good that he rarely let an opportunity alip away from him. Messrs, Moore and Morgan also played well, but their opponents were playing on their own courts and had the edge when it came to scoring.

Following are the summaries:

> FOREST HILL, N. Y., September 7.— The point score and stroke analysis
> The national lawn tennis championship in follow: singles for 1915 will go to a California player today unless the local weather man intervenes. Two of the famous native so players won the right on the courts of the West Side Club here yesterday afternoon to meet in the final round of the thirty-fifth annual tournament of the National Association by eliminating the liam M. Johnston of San Francisco eliminated R. Norris Williams, 2d, of Philadelphia, in a sensational five-set natch, 5—7, 6—4, 5—7, 8—2 2 and 1 and Philadelphia, in a sensational in while match, 5—7, 6—4, 5—7, 6—2, 6—2; while McLoughlin— 2 6 2 5 0 5 8 4 8 4 4 4—42—7 who already holds two legs on the all-Peil of New York, at 6—2, 6—0, 7—5.
> McLoughlin's victory was generally predicted by the tennis experts, for the famous Davis cup player has outranked his opponent of yesterday for several years. Johnston's defeat of Williams was far more sensational and unexpected, and proved to be the biggest upset in a national tournament for several seasons. The young Californian, who was placed sixth in the 1914 ranking, while Williams was No. 2, won his victory over the present titleholder by superior play and gensralship, and without the semblance of a fluke.

McLoughlin, 6 aces, 14 places, 11 nets, 8 out 1 double fault.
Fell, no aces, 10 places, 9 nets, 11 out, 1 double fault.

McLoughlin. 3 aces, 15 places, 13 nets, 7 outs, no double faults.

Pell, no aces, 15 places, 8 nets, 15 outs, one double fault.

Miss Lillian B. Hyde of the South Shore Field Club just failed on an eight-foot put for a 3 on the home green and thereby missed at it. As it was, the metropolitan champion had to be content with second place.

Both as to quantity and quality the tournament must be ranked as one of the best in the history of the United States Golf Association Belated entries swelled the total to 131, and of that number 120 started, the largest field on record for the women's champions. As gravin of Sherley Park, England, and Mrs. J. V. Hurd of Pittsburgh both qualified handly with scores of 96. Mrs. Garvin, who made quite a reputation as a golfer abroad, is the wife of the man who was in New York a few years ago with William Horn, the masked golfer.

Young Girl Plays Well.

Only a little behind the leaders was Miss Alexa Stirling, the seventeen-year-old southern champion from Atlanta. Miss Stirling captivated the gallery with her easy, graceful style.
